Brian Cheeswright and Ed Hill: Two Painters

2 October - 9 November 2014

The Gallery at Idea Store Whitechapel invites you to a joint exhibition by two award-winning painters Brian Cheeswright and recent graduate Ed Hill.

London born painter Brian Cheeswright is taking stock of his output and pondering the curious geography of lines and marks and wrong turns he has mapped out for himself - adventures carried out in the living room of his Edinburgh flat.

Ed Hill aims to make atmospheric paintings, imbued with an elusive mystery and warmth. The subject matter used to inform his paintings can vary; sketches from life, personal photographs and memories and painting history can all inform an idea.
