

Course Description and Outline

Course Title	Get Set to Study ESOL Entry 2b
Level of Course	Entry 2	Course Code	A8050
Duration in Weeks	12 weeks
Brief Description of Course What will the course cover?	This course will help you to read and write confidently. You will learn about your rights and responsibilities as a learner and also as a citizen. You will read a variety of texts and answer questions as well as developing your writing skills to write letters, emails and articles. This course will also embed some ICT and Numeracy.
Entry Requirements	You will need to have completed ESOL Entry 2 speaking and listening or be able to demonstrate language of the required level.
Main Learning Outcomes for all Learners (Maximum of 5) By the end of the course you will be able to:
1	Join the Idea Store, borrow a book from the library and write a short review about it.
2	Write down 3-5 new words in your notebook from each session.
3	Write a short account of a recent past activity in 60 words.
4	Organise a personal folder of your work.
5	Use a mark scheme to self-correct your writing.
Equipment Required What will I need to bring to class?	You will need to bring a folder, paper, pens and an English dictionary.
What courses can I go on to?	ESOL Entry 2 accredited (speaking and listening or reading and writing), IT courses or a non-exam ESOL course (Brush up your Grammar or Boost your Literacy Skills).

What examination or assessment will there be and what will it involve?

There is no examination for this course. You will agree individual learning goals with your tutor which you must achieve by the end of the course. If you achieve these goals you will continue on to the Entry 2 Reading and Writing exam class in January 2017 with exams in July 2017.

Please note on all examination courses, it is a requirement that you provide photographic proof of ID. This is for external awarding body and internal invigilation authentication purposes.

How will I know I am making progress?

Your tutor will talk to you about your homework and your class work throughout the course and you will keep a folder with your work. At the beginning of the course, you will agree an individual learning plan with your tutor and you will have a tutorial session with your tutor at the end of each term to discuss what you are good at and what you need to work on.

Is there anything else I need to know?

Please remember if you miss 3 classes in a row or your attendance is below 80%, you will lose your place on the course. When attending class, you must bring to class all equipment to study (pens, paper, dictionary etc.).

You must do your homework and any other tasks that your tutor asks you to do enable you to achieve your learning goals. If you do not, then your tutor can remove you from the course.

If you cannot finish the course, you must tell your tutor as soon as possible. If you cannot attend an exam that you have been entered for, then you will be liable to pay £50.

What if I want extra support? Contact the Learner Support & Advice Team

The Learner Support & Advice Team can support learners achieve their education and employment goals. Information, advice & guidance is given on a range of issues including, financial support and support available for learners who are disabled and learners with learning difficulties, Come and see one of experienced and friendly advisors who can help you make the next step. For further information, text IDEA and your name to 07950 080 341 or email ideastorelearning@towerhamlets.gov.uk and a member of the team will get back to you.

This is a brief description of the course content and is not definitive or exhaustive. The course content may be subject to change without notice however the details above are intended to give a picture of the types of activities which may be included on the course.

Course outlines provide a general summary of the contents and material to be covered during lessons. They are subject to change at the discretion of teachers to meet the needs of learners and should not be regarded as prescriptive lists of activities to be covered.

Course Outline V.4