What examination or assessment will there be and what will it involve?

At the beginning of the course an initial assessment takes place to identify your level of experience knowledge or current skills.

The tutor will carry out informal assessments to check your understanding, there is no exam.

You will complete a self-assessment at the beginning, middle and end of the course and you will participate in regular self assessment.

Your tutor will let you know how you are getting on throughout the course, to help you work to your full potential.

At the end of the course you will receive written feedback.

How will I know I am making progress?

Your tutor will give you on-going feedback.

You will have an individual learning plan to monitor your own progress:

You will feel more confident and less inhibited about singing in a group.

You should feel greater body awareness as a singer and stronger listening and rhythmic skills.

You will also gain more from the course if you commit time to it outside the classroom.

Is there anything else I need to know?

To maximise your chances of benefiting from the course fully we expect you to attend all scheduled sessions and that you do so punctually and are ready to start learning at the start of the class.
