What examination or assessment will there be and what will it involve?

If you are ready, you will have an opportunity to sit Functional Skills English Level 2 exams at the end of the term.

In addition, your tutor will observe and assess your participation in an informal discussion.

Your tutor will also set you individual goals to be reviewed during a 1-to-1 tutorial.

Please note on all examination courses, it is a requirement that you provide photographic proof of ID. This is for external awarding body and internal invigilation authentication purposes.

How will I know I am making progress?

Your tutor will inform you of your progress and you will complete regular progress reviews with your tutor.

You will also be assessed in class by one to one, summative and formative assessments and tutorials.

Is there anything else I need to know?

Please remember if you miss 3 classes in a row or your attendance is below 80%, you will lose your place on the course. When attending class, you must bring to class all equipment to study (pens, paper, dictionary etc.).

You must do your homework and any other tasks that your tutor asks you to do enable you to achieve your learning goals. If you do not, then your tutor can remove you from the course.

If you cannot finish the course, you must tell your tutor as soon as possible. If you cannot attend an exam that you have been entered for, then you will be liable to pay £50.
