

Course Description and Outline

Course Title	Silkscreen and Printmaking
Level of Course	All	Course Code	B3124
Duration in Weeks	10
Brief Description of Course What will the course cover?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Introduction to creative one and two colour mono printing • Introduction to screen printing using various techniques including: Drawing Fluid, Wax Stencil Card, Oil Pastel, Photo Stencil etc.,
Entry Requirements	None
Main Learning Outcomes for all Learners (Maximum of 5) By the end of the course you will be able to:
1	Print Mono prints using one and two colours
2	Be able to use a range of silkscreen and printmaking techniques including: direct and indirect methods and registration techniques (All) understand the best stencil method to realise an effect (Advanced)
3	Develop individual creative work
4	Produce a successful photo stencil (All) Apply skills to individual projects (Advanced)
5
Equipment Required What will I need to bring to class?	None, although using a sketchbook to begin to collect images, patterns, words, ideas etc., is a good tool for developing individual creativity.
What courses can I go on to?	You can continue on this course developing your skills, or move onto the Printmaking Open Studios or other related courses.

What examination or assessment will there be and what will it involve?

There will be an initial assessment followed by on-going assessment and achievement.

The course will also include:

- 1:1 tutorials
- Student presentations

How will I know I am making progress?

Your tutor will give you on-going feedback. You will have an individual learning plan to monitor your own progress.

The tutor will also track your progress on the ILP and skills checklist.

You will also gain more from the course if you commit time to it outside the classroom.

Is there anything else I need to know?

In general, we will not allow late entry to any course after the first two weeks. Short intensive courses and most workshops will not accept new learners after the first class. In all cases the full fee will be charged.

What if I want extra support? Contact the Learner Support & Advice Team

We want to support all our learners to achieve their goals. If you want help to decide what to do next or if there are any circumstances which you think may prevent you from studying (such as financial problems, lack of basic skills, disability or a learning difficulty) we may be able to help. For these and any other queries call the Learner Support and Advice Team ring back service on 020 7364 5665 or visit the team at the Shadwell Centre to book an appointment.

This is a brief description of the course content and is not definitive or exhaustive. The course content may be subject to change without notice however the details above are intended to give a picture of the types of activities which may be included on the course.

Course outlines provide a general summary of the contents and material to be covered during lessons. They are subject to change at the discretion of teachers to meet the needs of learners and should not be regarded as prescriptive lists of activities to be covered.