Talking Photos: Whitechapel Reframed

Wednesday 1 – Sunday 12 April 2015

On the six-week Talking Photos course, a group of 25 local residents ventured out together with cameras in hand, intent on taking a closer look at Whitechapel. Their mission was to photograph the local street life, shopkeepers, architecture, and landmarks – and in so doing, capture stories and insights into the area, both past and present. Talking Photos: Whitechapel Reframed brings together 40 story-telling images, chosen to reflect and interpret five themes: curiosities, encounters, journeys, landscapes and moments.
