

ESOL Category 2: Entry 2- Entry 3

Title: “Unbelievable”

by Mahbuba Begum

Samira was study at a college. One day she return to home, she saw a man left a bag in the middle of the road. She opened this bag and saw a new born baby girl inside this bag. She shocked to see that who can left a baby in the middle of the road. She carried her and she cried a lot. Samira took her to home. She look after her, this baby girl Saima. Saima found a family, she is 8 years old now. Samira doesn't want to marry anyone because everyone accept Samira as a wife, but they didn't want to accept Saima as a daughter. Samira is an independent woman; she can earn for herself. In this world there is so many poor people their thinking is girl is a burden for a family. They are weak but Samira is a brave girl. We need so many Samira for a poor country.