

The course I want is

ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY

That's What I Want To Learn

Heath & Wellbeing

Learn about therapy and health

We offer opportunities to learn about how therapy can be used to maintain and improve health. How massage can be used to with your friends and family as an aid to relaxation and stress management.

The Courses are:

- Aromatherapy gifts - Beginners
- Learn basic Massage Routines – Beginners
- Introduction to Indian Head Massage Techniques – Beginners
- Introduction to Massage Techniques – Beginners

Qualifying to work in health and therapeutic services

We offer you Anatomy, Physiology, Pathology and Massage Techniques, the ITEC industry standard that will qualify you to work in complimentary therapy and health settings. Internationally recognised, the qualification teaches you how to work with clients therapeutically to maintain their health and treat injury and disease.

Some of the courses are:
