

Despite the COVID-19 outbreak, Violence Against Women and Girls (VAWG) services are still in operation. Please see below for all support available.

In an emergency you should always call 999

If you are in danger and unable to talk on the phone, call 999, and then press 55. This will transfer your call to the relevant police force who will assist you without you having to speak.

Our Independent Domestic Violence Advocates (IDVA) and Hate Crime Casework service are still available. However, due to Government guidelines around Covid 19, the drop-in service at the Shadwell Centre will not be available, neither will our Domestic Abuse One Stop Shop.

If you are experiencing domestic or 'honour' based abuse currently and would like emotional or practical support over the telephone, there are several options:
